Gateway Services Group launches new best practice webinars to credit union industry

Denver, CO – Gateway Services Group (GSG) announced today that they will be offering free informative webinars to the credit union industry. The webinars will be focused around best practices within a credit unions investment, insurance and trust departments. GSG’s team of experienced professionals currently provide an invaluable resource to credit unions whether to provide the needed expertise to solve a technical question, the data to benchmark the program performance, the day-to-day management of their insurance, trust and investment programs, or the expertise to carry out a project. These webinars are designed to assist a credit union in this area of expertise.

Scott Jentz, President and founder of GSG, stated “Through our various webinar offerings, credit unions nationwide will have the opportunity to benefit from the best practices learned across all of GSG’s current credit union clients. Credit unions are our most valued partners, and we are extremely excited to be able to share this information with them.”

The first webinar is due to launch this month, with several others on the horizon. For more information on the upcoming webinars, please visit the GSG website at www.gsgllc.com.
