Gateway Services Group Board Member, Scott Waite, wins CFO of the Year Trailblazer Award

Denver, CO – Gateway Services Group (“GSG”) wants to recognize Board Member, Scott Waite of Patelco Credit Union, as the recipient of the 2010 Credit Union Times CFO of the Year Trailblazer Award. The Trailblazer Award is provided to those who are not only leaders in the credit union industry, but also pave the way for others by making invaluable contributions that benefit many. Considered an expert in the industry, Waite has a reputation for being an outspoken supporter for small businesses and through his affiliation with the Financial Accounting Standards Board he has been integral in helping to set policy for the nation’s financial reporting and accounting standards.

Scott Waite has been on the Board of Directors for GSG since 2004. Scott Jentz, President and Founder of GSG states “GSG relies on its Board to provide industry insight and help refine new opportunities. We have been very fortunate to have Scott Waite serve on our Board and congratulate him on this exceptional achievement.”

“It is indeed a great honor to accept this important award and I'm humbled by their consideration and recognition of my contributions to Patelco and the industry,” said Scott Waite. “I am also honored that GSG is celebrating these contributions as well.”
